

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and yet seems to be willing to Commit an illeal action to create poison prior to this very important election. Inaction on your part will show all of us how little you care about how we get our information and demean the world of journalism even more.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
